Garbage Plan To Be Adopted

MENLO PARK, Jan. 10—Reorganization of Menlo Park's existing garbage collection system was voted last night by the city council, meeting for the first time in the new city hall at El Camino Real and Santa Cruz Ave.

Action was taken on the basis of a report submitted by Frank Beeton, finance commissioner for the city, who recommended that an ordinance requiring compulsory collections—originally passed 13 years ago—be enforced in Menlo Park.

With one dissenting vote, by Mayor James E. Cooper, the council voted to enforce the ordinance.

Then Councilman Beeton introduced a second proposal intended to bring the city added revenue annually from the collection of garbage.

$250 MONTH REVENUE

He proposed that the present garbage company be offered an 8-year franchise, replacing the present one which has 3½ years to go, on the condition that $250 a month is paid to the city, plus 5 per cent of the annual gross revenue.

At present, the company pays $100 monthly, which it recently offered to double.

Beeton offered a report of City Health Officer R. J. Gerlough to prove that many sections of the city have inadequate garbage disposal facilities, and that dumping of garbage and rubbish takes place on empty lots and in San Francisquito Creek.

CAN WORK OUT FEES

The new plan, adopted by the council, makes provision for residents unable to pay for garbage collection. The city will pay the fee, and then persons unable to pay will do special work at a rate of $3 a day.

Need for storm sewers within the city was recounted by Councilman Harry J. Lusk, who described the inadequate drainage in times of severe rain.

The council exercised its option on property adjacent to the Memorial Park, and authorized the payment of approximately $300 from the unbudgeted reserve fund to secure the land before the option expires. This sum represents one half of the complete price still to be paid for the property.

Credit Claimed For 'Safest Air Year'

Announcement by the Civil Aeronautics Authority in Washington of a remarkable 1939 safety record for air lines of the United States brought quick claims today for recognition.

From the Aircraft Manufacturers' Association came the claim that California-built planes were responsible for the record. The association called attention to its skilled men, including James W. Clyne, former Redwood City resident, whose ability has contributed to safety in the air.

Stanford University declared that its technically trained graduates played an important role in achieving the safety record. Twenty-nine Stanford graduates are employed as designers, technicians, or engineers in the airplane factories of Southern California.

Most of these men are former students of the famed Guggenheim Aerodynamics Laboratory at Stanford, a nationally recognized center of research and training.

The CAA report shows that in 1939 the air lines had but two fatal accidents compared with five in 1938 and eight in 1937.

STREET ZONING BRINGS DISPUTE BEFORE COUNCIL

MENLO PARK, Jan. 10—"East Side, West Side, all around the town"—

The east side and the west side of Menlo Park's Crane St. met last night in a pitched battle, and the reverberations must have been heard all around the town before the feudin' came to a temporary stalemate.

Both sides appeared before the Menlo Park City Council to respectively commend or condemn the council's action of its last meeting, in which the west side of Crane St. was re-zoned into a "AA" district, restricted to single family dwellings, while the east side was excluded from the rezoning.

"We ask you to reconsider your rezoning of Paraiso Park in which you excluded the easterly side," said John Sullivan, representing a bloc of residents.

CAN LOOK ACROSS

"After all, those on the west side must look at those on the east side. If those on the other side can build anything they want, this will depreciate the values of properties of those persons on the non-commercial side."

A group of west-side Crane streeters nodded their heads in agreement.

Mayor James E. Cooper, in the role of a disgruntled Solomon, broke in to say:

"A bunch of you gets up in favor of rezoning. Then a bunch gets up against it. It would take a lot smarter bunch of councilmen than we are to figure out what you do want."

DECIDED IN HUDDLE

The council was adjourned for a 10-minute period and the councilmen went into a protracted huddle.

Emerging from its chamber session, it called on City Atty. James O'Keefe Jr., who told the feuding Crane streeters:

"The council denies the right to consider a petition for reconsideration of the rezoning ordinance since the factual circumstances of the situation remain the same."

At this point the council heard a reading of the new ordinance, and it was introduced, thus ending the Crane St. dispute which has come up before the council for six months.

As it now appears, the west side, which is now restricted to single family dwellings, may look across the street and "view with alarm" the construction of duplex dwellings or apartment structures.

LILLIPUTIANS BAG A GIANT!

One of the big climactic scenes in Paramount's feature-length cartoon in Technicolor "Gulliver's Travels," which opens Sunday at the Sequoia Theater—the taking of Man-Mountain Gulliver by picayune Lilliputian army. The cast of literally thousands makes of "Gulliver's Travels" one of the most ambitious motion picture animations ever undertaken. It was produced by Max Fleischer Studios in Miami.

Methodist Official 'Y' Meet Speaker

Plans have been virtually completed for the 15th annual meeting of Peninsula Branch, Young Men's Christian Association, Secty. Thomas W. Badley announced here as he disclosed that the Rev. T. H. Palmquist, district superintendent for the Methodist Church, had been secured as the principal speaker.

The dinner will be held in the First Methodist Church at Burlingame at 6:45 p .m. Thursday, Jan. 18. Because of limitations in facilities, the meeting will be limited to an attendance of 225. Reservations, at 75 cents each, should be made at once with Badley or at the YMCA office in Burlingame (telephone Redwood 2690-W or Burlingame 3289).

At the dinner, at which Robert R. Gros of Palo Alto, well-known public speaker, will be toastmaster, presentation of the work for the year will be made and officers for 1940 elected. Nominations for the various positions were made by a committee Sunday and forwarded to local committees for approval or further nominations. Wilbur H. Doxsee of Redwood City has served as county chairman this year.

At that time also, the new assistant to Secretary Badley is to be presented. It is expected he will be selected this week.

Swimming Pool Plans Ordered for Park

Preparation of plans and specifications for a swimming pool at Flood Park near Atherton was authorized by the San Mateo County Recreation Commission Tuesday at the suggestion of County Executive Frederick Peterson. Construction on a bath house has been started, and the pool will be built if sufficient funds are available in the present budget.

The commission requested the district attorney's office to oust three squatters on the county's Thornton Beach property. Among them is the hermit who found the bodies of Leo Tyma and Ray Lagomarsino at the foot of a cliff Nov. 2. Officials anticipated trouble dealing with the recluse, who quarreled with newspapermen who sought to question him at the time of the Coastside slaying.

John Francis Neylan Is Sued for $160,000

The Anglo California National Bank, San Francisco, has sued in superior court for recovery of $160,000 from John Francis Neylan of Woodside, its former attorney.

The complaint stated that Neylan failed to perform his duty as an attorney for the bank when he represented the institution and Herbert Fleishhacker, former president of the bank, in the Kern County oil lands case.

The oil case resulted in a federal court judgment of $235,500 plus $398,079 interest against both the bank and Fleishhacker for Jean Lazard and other French owners of the oil lands who claimed that Fleishhacker disposed of the potentially oil-rich property for less than it was worth.

In the complaint today the bank charged that Neylan failed to notify it of a conflict of interest which resulted in the bank being held jointly accountable with its former president.

Endowment funds for colleges decreased by three per cent during 1938-39.

$670 Furs, Jewelry Stolen From Home

BURLINGAME, Jan. 8—Theft last night of fur and jewelry valued at $670 from the Albert R. Auger home, 2001 Hillside Dr., by a burglar who apparently knew where the valuables were kept, was being investigated by police here today.

A Hudson seal full length coat, valued at $195, and a pair of silver fox furs, valued at $275, were the most costly of the 11 articles taken, Mrs. Auger reported.

That the burglar who entered the house through the garage knew exactly what he was looking for was indicated by the fact that he ransacked the rear bedroom and front closet only, leaving the rest of the house untouched. Mrs. Auger reported the theft to police here shortly before midnight and said that the house had been unoccupied between 7 and 9:30 p.m.

Emulsified petroleum asphalt, combined with cork, rubber and bagasse, makes the newest type of tennis courts which give the needed "spring" underfoot and the uniformly true bounce of the ball, say experts.

Public Invited To Floral Displays

An invitation to the general public to visit the monthly meetings and flower displays of the Woodside Gardeners Association at the Redwood City Woman's Clubhouse the first Monday of each month at 7:30 p. m. or before was issued today by newly-installed officers of the organization.

Heading the association this year are Victor Canavese, president; Edwin L. Tate, vice president; Leonard Bugna, secretary; Anton Silvera, treasurer; Tony Mayer, secretary; Ralph Ledesma, historian; Andrew Ramese, usher. They were installed last Saturday evening by Agricultural Commissioner Max J. Leonard. Outgoing president is Otto Meerly.

President Canavese named committees, including a membership committee headed by Historian Ledesma, and outlined work for the coming year. Following the meeting, refreshments were served and accordion music rendered by Paul Penna, who accompanied community singing.

Local Moose Lodge Initiates 25 Members

Twenty-five new members were welcomed into Redwood City Lodge 1112, Loyal Order of Moose, at rites Tuesday evening in the Moose Club attended by members from San Francisco, San Jose and Salinas. San Francisco Lodge's drill team was present. More than 100 members of the organization attended. Following the meeting, a joint birthday party was held with Women of the Moose, Chapter 601. Refreshments were served.

Truck Week Is Feted Here

According to announcement made this week by Al. Davies, manager of Davies Auto Co. of Redwood City, Chevrolet's National Truck Week, Jan. 8-13, inclusive, will be among the most important events of the 1940 automotive year. Joining with F. Norman Phelps, Pacific regional manager of Chevrolet Motor Division, and S. C. Vance, regional truck manager, Davies stated that the program is the most extensive and educational ever presented by Chevrolet.

"Among the highlights of National Truck Week is the elaborate truck and commercial car display arranged by dealers throughout the Pacific Region," said Davies. "Dealers in all points of the Western area have sent invitations to fleet owners and commercial car operators to attend this announcement of the 1940 Chevrolet light and heavy-duty series and to view the complete display which includes 56 models on nine different wheelbases. Special educational programs have been scheduled for the week and men trained in the mechanics and features of the new 1940 series will explain the numerous economy, comfort and performance features embodied in the 1940 models.

"I would like to take this opportunity to extend a cordial invitation to the people of Redwood City to attend this Chevrolet truck showing. A complete variety of models, colors, and mechanical features of the new series will be on display at our showrooms throughout this week."

Holiday Spent In Snowstorm

Delayed in reaching Miami by Christmas as they had planned, Redwood City's Junior Mariners and their skipper, Capt. L. F. Bosshardt, spent the holidays on their newly-acquired training ship in a snow storm.

This was the information conveyed today by letter to Dr. Will Reber of Belmont, owner of the schooner, "White Cloud" which Bosshardt and a crew plan to sail to Port Redwod City for a training ship for the marine school.

In the letter, written Jan. 1, Captain Bosshardt said the group was at Morehead City, N. C., "making ready for the open sea."

He wrote:

"The weather is severe with snow storms and high southeast to southwest winds off the coast. I am glad that we are sailing into warmer weather as this North Atlantic snow storm is just a trifle cool for dyed-in-the-wool Californians. On Christmas Eve we were treated to an old-fashioned New England snow storm and on Christmas Day, with our snow-covered decks and ice and icicles on the rigging and masts, we looked like a ship that had just attempted the Northwest passage.

"My wife has been 'shanghaied' into the job as cook and is doing a fine job of it, but is constantly amazed at the amount of chow these Junior Mariners can stow away at one sitting. Your fine Christmas dinner to the boys was consumed with much gusto and in all my 30 years of sea experience I have never seen a finer Christmas dinner served a sailor.

"As to the routine of the vessel, since the time I boarded her Dec. 20, a 24-hour watch is kept. I consider the Junior Mariner crew well trained and each member now holds a continuous discharge book, as well as certificates of ordinary seamen, issued to them by the Department of Commerce. The boys are grooving in nicely and are taking to their work in fine fashion, showing the results of their training on the Meta K. at Redwood City.

"The White Cloud is in lines what I thought she would be—just beautiful and as seaworthy as any Gloucester Fisherman.

"As soon as the weather abates I shall put out to sea and will stop in at Jacksonville, Fla.

"The boys join me in wishing you and all of our friends in California a Happy New Year."

TOASTMASTERS TO ELECT

Redwood City Toastmasters made plans Monday to elect officers next Monday, then heard talks by William Henderson on "A Trip to the Northwest"; P. M. Williams, "A Trip to Texas"; J. A. Toso, "Accident Insurance"; Donald L. Bogle, "CCC." W. Earl Whitaker was chairman.

California Joins "March of Dimes"

WASHINGTON — Citizens of California are enthusiastically behind the March of Dimes drive in the "Fight Infantile Paralysis" campaign, Warren Lee Pierson, president of the Export-Import Bank of Washington, (right), tells George E. Allen, Commissioner of the District of Columbia.

Mr. Allen is Chairman of the "March of Dimes" Committee, which is a division of the Committee for the Celebration of the President's Birthday, of which Keith Morgan is National Chairman.

Commissioner Allen will be in charge of the "March of Dimes" birthday card feature. These greeting cards distributed throughout this state, will be filled with dimes and mailed to President Roosevelt at the White House before his fifty-eighth birthday on January 30th. In this manner those who contribute will join with the President in the war against this crippling disease.

One-half of the donations received at the White House will be returned to California and the other one-half will be sent to the Committee for the Celebration of the President's Birthday to be turned over to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Every dime will be accounted for, under the direction of a nationally known firm of auditors.

$139,000 Value Put On Widow's Estate

Julia Morrison, Burlingame widow who died June 24, left an estate appraised at $139,578.79 in an inventory filed in superior court by Appraiser Bradford M. Melvin.

Included in the estate are stocks and bonds, largest item being $24,000 in shares of the McNee Co.; real estate including Coastside property valued at $30,707, Burlingame property priced at $13,250, and other lands in Contra Costa, Mendocino, San Bernardino and Monterey Counties.

Mrs. Morrison, who lived at 1420 Drake Ave., made bequests totaling $78,000, including three trust funds. She left the residue of her estate to Mrs. Netta C. McIntosh of Burlingame.

More Items Given Community Toystack

It's still almost a year until Christmas. But Redwood City's 1940 Community Toystack continued to grow today.

Latest additions to it are a supply of games, contributed by the Goetz' Variety Shop which, like Montgomery Ward & Co., preferred to give to the toystack leftovers rather than keep them for next year.

In order that a number of toys found to be unusable this year may be salvaged for possible distribution next Christmas, a group of Sequoia High School students, members of the Sequoia Times staff, have been sorting the leftovers the past few days so that repairable toys may be made available to Sequoia classes or organizations and individuals willing to repair them.

Game Warden Breaks Leg, Crawls for Aid

SAN MATEO, Jan. 10 — His leg broken when he caught it between two rocks, C. R. Peek, 40, of San Mateo, State game warden, crawled a quarter of a mile last night before reaching a San Mateo County coastside service station where he was put in an automobile and taken to Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo.

Peek was chasing salmon spearers on Gazos Creek south of Pescadero when he slipped and fell on the rocks, his right leg being jammed between two large boulders.

The game warden managed to crawl to the service station at the mouth of the creek.

MENLO PARK NEWS

MOTHER BLYTHE HONORED

MENLO PARK, Dec. 11—Hundreds of former pupils, friends and members of religious orders attended the funeral rites of Mother Caroline Blythe, superior of the Sacred Heart Convent, who passed away of an heart attack Saturday evening. Mother Blythe had been an educator for nearly 50 years, and many of her former pupils were present to pay their last tribute of love to the saintly sister who had devoted her long life to the education and training of young women that they might be honored members of society and a credit to their alma mater.

After the requiem mass on Tuesday the remains, followed by a large number of sorrowing friends, were taken to the convent cemetery, where they were laid to rest.

Mother Blythe was born at Lake Forest, Ill., and at an early age began her religious life. She had been a superior of the local convent for several years and held similar positions in different parts of the country.

Her kindness and affection will long live in the memory of her vast number of pupils who loved the talented religious woman.

The gentle rain and warm weather produced a vast crop of mushrooms, so that all lovers of the fungi had an abundance. The Flood fields were the mecca for hunters.

The 28th District, American Legion, will meet in Menlo Park this evening at 8 o'clock. Bessie Wood, district president, will preside and Menlo Park Unit 443 will be the hostess unit.

The Menlo Park Horticultural Society is planning an entertainment to be given the latter part of the month. It plans to give a whist party in the near future.

The rainfall for the season has been 7.50 inches as against 5.78 inches at this time last year. Yesterday there was a big head of water in the San Francisquito Creek, the longest flow in many years. There is a large run of salmon in the head waters of the stream.

George Headley, a native of Menlo Park, aged 68 years, passed away at San Francisco last Saturday following a long illness. He was a retired railroad engineer. His wife predeceased him nine years ago. Mr. Headley, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Headley, spent his early days in Menlo Park before engaging in railroading. His brother, Edward Headley, lives in Redwood City.

Mrs. Elmer Carter was operated upon Wednesday at Palo Alto Hospital. At last accounts she is improving and will be able to leave the hospital next week. Mrs. Carter has many friends in Menlo Park to whom the news of her recovery will be welcome.

Theodore Pretzel, the San Francisco banker who passed away this week was known in Menlo Park, being a relative of the pioneer Lynch family. As a young man Mr. Pretzel spent his vacations here.

Very little interest is being manifested in the city election in April. The terms of Councilmen Lusk and Belton expire. They have not as yet announced

Honors Won By Graduates

Five graduates of the Sequoia High School class of 1939, all members of the Sequoia Chapter, California Scholastic Federation, placed high in scholarship during the Fall college and university sessions just ended, according to advices received by Principal A. C. Argo.

Missing a straight "A" average by one grade point was Miss Carolyn White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll F. White of Menlo Park. She placed fourth among 242 CSF members now at the University of California.

James Canning placed fourth among 64 freshmen CSF students at Stamford University. Canning, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Canning, Redwood City, had a 2.773 average.

Other members of the Sequoia CSF placing high were James Fairley, fourth out of 31 at San Jose State; Kazuo Kariya, third out of five at San Mateo Junior College, and Gladys Liddicoat, seventh out of 31 at San Jose.

John Dusel of Menlo Junior College and Francis Nash of Santa Clara also placed high but their rankings were not given as there were no other CSF members in their class, Argo explained.

Sugar Beet Payments Due on 1940 Crops

Reinstatement of the Sugar Act program, including payments to co-operators, to cover the 1940 sugar beet crop was indicated today at the San Mateo County Agricultural Conservation Association Office in San Jose.

According to the county office, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced that payments will be made on the 1940 crop to growers who meet conditions of Title III of the Sugar Act.

This announcement followed the removal of sugar quota suspensions by President Roosevelt.

Details of conditions for 1940 crop payments to sugar beet growers will be supplied growers, as soon as received, it was stated in the AAA office. These will include specifications for agricultural practices and wage rate determinations.

Publishers Install Franklin as Head

Logan Franklin, publisher of the South San Francisco Enterprise, was installed Monday as president of the San Mateo County Publishers Association at a dinner held at Oliver's in the new president's home city.

Franklin succeeded Harry Butler, general manager of the San Mateo Times. Lester Lafferty, publisher of the San Carlos Enquirer, succeeded George McQueen as secretary, and McQueen, general manager of the Burlingame Advance, stepped up to the vice presidency.

Entertainment at the dinner was provided by Homer Haas, pianist, and Gene Packard, who presented a series of bird calls, imitations and impersonations.

Speaker of the evening was Frederic O. Glover, editor of the Advance, who told of a mule trip he made in 1934 through the Spanish Sierras.

GROWTH, POSSIBILITIES TOLD BY SPEAKERS AT MEET HERE

The past few years have been excellent ones for Redwood City, but 1940 and the coming years should be even better if the home, the school, the church and the city's government all work together in a constructive manner—

That seemed to be the theme of Sunday night's meeting at the First Methodist Church where an interesting, enlightening discussion was carried on by representatives of the city, church and school before an audience which, apparently because of the rain, numbered not more than 75 persons.

As the first speaker, Mayor Louis C. Christensen, introduced by City Clerk B. E. Myers, spoke chiefly of the accomplishments of Redwood City in recent years. He talked briefly on its history; its growth; its achievements. Citing population figures and building statistics, Mayor Christensen pointed out that Redwood City in 1920 had a population of 4020; in 1930, 8962, and at present, an estimated 14,000. Building in 1937 amounted to $75,700; in 1938, $1,137,260; in 1939, $1,169,603, he said.

He told of development of the Port of Redwood City, which now is on a self-supporting basis; of the building of the city hall and library, playgrounds, recreation facilities, and complimented the city's various official bodies, including the port, recreation and planning commissions and library board of trustees.

"Redwood City is going ahead fast and getting to be known throughout the country," he declared.

SUPERINTENDENT ARGO

Sequoia High School Supt. A. C. Argo, introduced by Vice Principal Donald L. Bogie, spoke on "Our Social Objectives," pointing to the necessity of "living together to the advantage of all and at the same time offering an opportunity for the development of each individual."

Declaring that the "greatest difficulty with the world today is selfishness," Argo pleaded for an application of the principles found in the teachings of Jesus Christ and declared that the "churches have been a tremendous influence throughout the centuries for development of the finest of human relationships."

One means taken by the school to promote social objectives is the encouragement of a democratic student government, athletics and cultural activities, Argo pointed out. He lauded Redwood City's efforts to provide recreational and cultural development for its citizens, but declared:

"There is still work to be done. We haven't yet furnished the recreational and cultural advantages this community should furnish, but I'm glad that an adequate start is being made along this line."

SUPERINTENDENT SPINAS

Andrew Spinas, district elementary school superintendent, stressed the responsibility borne jointly by the home, community, church and schools, emphasizing the fact that the American public school system "is the largest, most progressive, best supported in the world."

He discussed the history of free public education from its start in 1837, dwelling particularly on the change in emphasis from "giving to the pupil and asking him to give it back to you" to the development of personality, character, citizenship, mentality and ability to achieve for himself.

The four objectives of education, Spinas said, were education for self-realization; education for human relationships; education for economic efficiency; education for civic responsibility.

During 1940, and in the future, Spinas said the objectives of Redwood City's schools would be to teach their pupils to read well; to write intelligently and legibly; to know and understand American history and culture; "to realize the blessing it is to be an American"; to secure the qualities of character "which distinguish a good citizen and neighbor."

Most of these achievements are the joint responsibility of the home, church, school and community, Spinas pointed out.

"All of us must work toward their achievement, or we will fall short of their accomplishment," he concluded.

REV. CHARLES E. WARD

As the last speaker, the Rev. Charles E. Ward, pastor of the First Congregational Church and president of the local ministerial association, stressed the fact that the church's job is one of prevention, rather than cure.

"One of our greatest tasks is to keep the morale of our people from utterly going to pot," he declared.

Pointing to the troublous times—war abroad, tremendous government debt and unemployment here—Dr. Ward asserted:

"I think that one of the greatest responsibilities the church is to have in this year is to keep people feeling that life is not futile.

"Although life has its difficulties, don't you forget that there were tremendous difficulties in the days when Jesus preached by the waters of Galilee . . ."

Bothered by the increase in insanity and in the suicide rate, both because of the "feeling of the utter futility of life," the minister declared the church could help decrease both by teaching individuals that "their lives are tremendously important in the eyes of God and that there are things for them to do."

Dealing with local matters, the speaker decried the abuse of the Sabbath by stores staying open on Sunday and by the holding of celebrations and parades during the hours of church services.

"If you take the Lord's Day out of a community, the people's respect for the church and religion goes," he declared. "A city or nation does that at the expense of its spiritual life."

He concluded:

"The strength of a city lies not in the value of its building permits, but in the fine quality of its citizenship."

To open the services, Karl Ernst led congregational singing, then later directed the choir in the singing of an anthem. He also sang in a quartet with W. Earl Whitaker, Thomas Vernall and Paul B. Baker. The Rev. Schuyler Pratt, rector of St. Peter's church, read the scripture lesson; Thomas W. Badley, YMCA secretary, gave the evening prayer. Dr. Samuel J. Chaney, pastor of the host church, presided.

Irving Mosher's Kin Passes in Wisconsin

NORTH PALO ALTO, Jan. 8—Irving Mosher, 401 Pope, North Palo Alto, left by train for Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., Saturday night after receiving word that his father, Andrew Mosher, 65, retired architect, had passed away there that day. He leaves his wife, Dora; a daughter, Mrs. Grant Gee of Wisconsin Rapids; and five grandchildren, Dorothy and Donald Gee and Robert, Betty Jean and Ralph Mosher. The latter two are students at Sequoia High School.

225 ENJOY COUNTY EMPLOYES' DINNER MEETING, SOCIAL

Two hundred twenty-five members and guests of the San Mateo County Employes Association met at the Southern Cafe near Lawndale Monday night for their first social affair of the new year. All five members of the board of supervisors, County Executive Frederick Peterson, Sheriff James J. McGrath and many another banneret, knight, and foot-soldier of the county government attended. Each had a specially prepared place card.

The association undertook no business, devoting itself to the banquet and to the entertainment provided by the committee in charge: Mrs. Mona Christensen, Mrs. Ellamay Abenseth, Mrs. Theresa Altieri, Mrs. O. M. Quigley, Miss Mary Robinson, Miss Mura Stilleson, Mrs. Helen Martin, Miss Marjory Young, Miss Dorothy Blackburn, Miss Iva Johnson and Miss Alma Paganini.

Lumber Is Unloaded At Port Despite Rain

One of four or five ships expected at the harbor this month, the lumber schooner Willapa docked at the Port of Redwood City on Wednesday and was discharging its cargo despite the rain. It expected to complete its task and leave tonight.

FACES TRIAL FOR BATTERY

Bilger H. Jensen, 34, 2120 Jefferson Ave., Redwood City, today was free on his own recognizance after being jailed by Redwood City police on a charge of battery. The complaint, signed by his wife, resulted from a family quarrel between the two on Jan. 1, according to local officers. His trial is set for 11 a. m. in Judge E. I. McAuliffe's court Jan. 29.

South League Reorganized

MENLO PARK, Jan. 10—Reorganization of the Menlo Park Taxpayers' League has been completed and the new civic organization has begun a drive to gain 500 members, according to E. M. Rankin, chairman of the league.

A new slate of officers has been selected to serve on the advisory board and permanent offices will be maintained at 477 El Camino Real under the supervision of Capt. R. C. Padley, vice-chairman of the league.

Membership in the league, which formerly was known as the Southern San Mateo County Taxpayers' League, was 100. This means, according to the director, that the membership drive will aim to secure 400 additional members.

"Objectives of the league remain the same," Rankin stated. "We will continue our attempts to be of service to the taxpayer in attempting to get the most for his dollar. We also mean to encourage every legitimate and practical civic improvement."

Rankin commented upon the political situation in Menlo Park in the following words:

"It is hoped it will not be necessary to deviate from the policy of the league for the past 2½ years, not to indorse or oppose candidates for office. However, force of circumstances may change the picture."

Members of the advisory board as duly constituted are as follows: Charles E. Fagg, Bruce Huggins, Bryan Turner, E. E. Quayle, Earl L. Hook, Walter E. Bidwell, George F. Cleese Jr. and Captain Padley. Paul F. Bryant is secretary-treasurer.

Master's Papers Won By Donald E. Huff

Donald E. Huff, of Gordon Ave., Menlo Park, a resident of Menlo Park for nine years and a former member of the San Mateo County Coast Guard patrol, has just been awarded master's papers for ships of 216 tons displacement or less by the United States Department of Commerce.

Huff is a native of Walla Walla, Wash., and has been in Coastwise shipping between San Francisco Bay and Bremerton, Wash., for the past seven years. His papers qualify him to command power boats not over 65 feet in length and not more than 15 gross tons, equivalent to 216 tons displacement.

The name "Australia" was first applied to a group of South Sea islands.

Judge McNutt Upheld In Chiropractic Suit

The state District Court of Appeals has upheld a $3382 judgment of the San Jose Superior Court against Louis Levine, Los Gatos chiropractor.

The judgment was granted by Judge Maxwell McNutt of Redwood City on the contention of Mrs. C. O. Wallace that the practitioner impaired the function of her left hand and wrist through negligent treatment of an injury she suffered three years ago.

SPICE OF LIFE

Some spicy touches—mix a little cinnamon in sugar used for coating stuffed dates; a dash of mace does a lot for oyster or mushroom soup; a speck of cloves put into tomato juice cocktail gives zip.

Complaints Are Filed In Bookmaking Case

Formal complaints charging Dent Fairless, 29, Walter T. Noble, 40, and George Zehender Jr., 22, with bookmaking were filed in Judge E. I. McAuliffe's court Monday afternoon. Undersheriff Lawrence Nieri, who arrested the trio in a raid on Bert's Place south of Redwood City Dec. 2, signed the complaint. The three are free on $250 bail each. No preliminary examination date has been set.

Community Dinner Tickets Put on Sale

Tickets for the Redwood City Community Dinner Wednesday, Jan. 17, went on public sale today at two sources, 2100 Broadway branch of the Bank of America and the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce office in the city hall.

Handling sales at the bank is Amerigo Rossi. Roscoe D. Wyatt, secretary-manager of the chamber of commerce, said other agencies may be opened this week. Tickets are $1 each.

Reilly To Be Feted At Dinner and Dance

George R. Reilly, member of the State Board of Equalization from this district, will be guest of honor Saturday evening, Jan. 20, at a dinner and dance in the Palace Hotel when his employes fete the end of his first year in office. A crowd of 1000 citizens of San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Monterey, San Benito, San Luis Obispo and San Francisco Counties is expected.

Burlingame Resident Identifies Robbers

William Carson, 48, John Jackson, 18, and Tom Ryan, 19, members of San Francisco's crime ring, were identified Tuesday by John Beedy of Burlingame as the trio who held him up and robbed him Nov. 12 of $2 in cash and the keys to his car. Beedy was to sign a robbery complaint this afternoon against the three men, who also robbed Capt. James Logan of the California Highway Patrol.

Reconstruction and re-alignment of the Red Bluff-Redding section of the Pacific Highway is scheduled to start next Spring.

Last Rites Are Held For Mother Superior

MENLO PARK, Jan. 9—Requiem mass was held at Sacred Heart Convent this morning for Caroline Blythe, mother superior of the school, who died Saturday night. An honorary police and firemen's escort attended the rites. The mother superior resided in Chicago before coming to Sacred Heart.

Coast Highway Bids Delayed Till Jan. 17

HALF MOON BAY, Jan. 8—Opening of bids for the first contracts on the Lake Lucerne-Lobitas sector of the Coast Rd. has been delayed until Jan. 17, according to Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch. Delay was caused by changes in wage schedules, he explained.

First contracts will be for grading the right of way between Lake Lucerne south of Pescadero and Palmer's Gulch, near San Gregorio. In March or April contracts will be let for bridges and structures in the same area. Completion of the road is expected to require more than a year.

Joint Highway Dist. 10 paid $120,000 to the state Wednesday as 50 per cent of its share of the cost of the contract. Another $120,000 is to be paid Sept. 1. The cost of the Lobitos-Palmer Gulch stretch is estimated at $500,000.

LOT DIVISIONS APPROVED

Approval of three proposed resubdivisions was granted by the city planning commission this week. The three areas to be divided into residential lots are on St. Francis Way, on Carlos St. between Orchard and Nueva Sts., and on Adams St. between Roosevelt and Oak Aves. The commission set a special meeting for Jan. 22 for a hearing on rezoning of property adjoining the Pratt-Low plant near the southern city limits.

Dinner Meeting Plans To Be Made Thursday

Final plans for the Community Dinner, to be held Wednesday, Jan. 17, at Sequoia High School Cafeteria, will be made Thursday at 4 p.m. at a meeting in the office of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring organization. Chairman Sam H. Winklebleck said this would be the only meeting of his dinner committee.

WOODSIDE

WOODSIDE, Jan. 11—Consumer education was the topic on which Miss Loda Mae Davis of San Mateo Junior College spoke at the January meeting of the Woodside Parent Teacher Association.

No afternoon card party will be held during this month, but the members will begin studying the state correspondence course, it was decided at the meeting.

Mrs. C. H. Joy, hospitality chairman, was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. J. V. Neuman, Mrs. G. E. Shine and Mrs. William Disher.

GROUP ATTENDS YLI OFFICERS DINNER

HALF MOON BAY, Jan. 11 — Members of Our Lady of the Pillar Institute 130, Young Ladies Institute, who attended the officers dinner held last evening at Ric's Place in Colma were as follows: Mrs. Don Campbell, Mrs. Manuel Bettencourt, Mrs. Clement Shields, Mrs. Nevin Radabaugh, Mrs. Tony Silva, Mrs. Antone Brunner, Mrs. William Miramontes and Mrs. Don Borley.

MRS. COLEMAN IS PRESIDENT FOR NEW YEAR

SAN CARLOS, Jan. 11—Election of officers was held Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Walter Moltke for the Carlosian Club.

Officers for the ensuing year are Mrs. Russell H. Coleman, president; Mrs. Joseph Nash, vice president; Mrs. Clara Sirex, secretary, and Mrs. Charles Gorse, treasurer.

Plans were also formed for the club's participation in the "Chickens Ball" which will be on Feb. 3 with Mrs. Walter Hauck and Mrs. Sirex as chairmen.

After the meeting games and refreshments were enjoyed by Mesdames Hauck, Roy Burgess, George Lagomarsino, Hunter, Russell Cole, Vera Cooper, Edward Tuite, Joseph Nash, D. Singer, Gorse, Andrew Johnson, C. H. Beckwith, Joseph Sheehan, Robert Allen, Helen Collins, Louise Hanna, James Allen, Margaret Johnson, E. J. Warne, James Black, Sirex, Coleman, Walter Moltke and the Misses Vera Boyd, Emma Lawson and Kay McCue.

Hostesses were Mrs. Moltke, Allen, Lagomarsino and Coleman.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph on Feb. 13.

Drilling for oil has, it is claimed, given geologists the first completely scientific data about many underground formations. One oil drill penetrated more than 15,000 feet below the surface of the ground.

Woman's Club

County Librarian Reviews Fiction, Non-Fiction Books

MENLO PARK, Jan. 11 — Reviews of both fiction and non-fiction books given by Miss Clara B. Dills, San Mateo County librarian, entertained members of the Menlo Park Woman's Club at a dessert tea Monday afternoon at the Palo Alto home of Mrs. J. L. Ewers.

Another book—the diary written by George Michael Hagelstein, grandfather of Mrs. L. E. Cutler of Palo Alto, in 1850—was exhibited by Mrs. Cutler.

BIRTHDAY GIFTS

Birthday remembrances were presented to Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. Robert Ricker and Miss Stella Ely.

Three of the members told of trips they had taken recently—Mrs. J. T. Aable of a visit to her former home in Detroit, where she had spent six weeks with friends and relatives; Mrs. J. William Ryan of a trip to Pasadena and the Carnival of Roses, and Mrs. Marion Silva of a trip to Southern California, where the flowers particularly interested her, for she is chairman of the club garden section.

COUNTY DELEGATE

Mrs. Cutler was appointed delegate to the meeting of the San Mateo County Federation of Women's Clubs held yesterday with the East Palo Alto Club as hostess.

The Menlo Park Club will meet again for dessert tea on Jan. 22 at the home of Mrs. Robert Ricker, with Mrs. Ray Johnson as co-hostess for members of the art and garden sections.

School Heads Lauded For U. S. Recognition

County Executive Frederick Peterson has lauded County School Supt. Pansy Jewett Abbott for the nationwide recognition given the curriculum of the county's elementary schools.

The curriculum was rated outstanding in a survey conducted in the Curriculum Laboratory at Columbia University Teacher's College, New York City. Of 1714 courses of study analyzed, 125 were selected as outstanding. In California San Mateo County led with 7, followed by 3 for Los Angeles City, 1 for Los Angeles County, 3 for Long Beach and 1 for Fresno.

Peterson extended congratulations to Miss Abbott, Mrs. Eleanor Freeman Collins, director of curriculums, and to all of the teachers who participated.

County Group's New Heads Take Office At Dinner-Dance

MILLBRAE, Jan. 11—The officers of Plumbers, Steamfitters and Apprentices Local Union 467 of San Mateo County for 1940 were formally installed at an elaborate dinner-dance held in the Spotlite Club at Millbrae Friday night.

The new chairman, Joseph L. Czapkay, is a veteran member of this union, one of the oldest in San Mateo County. William D. Brown of Lomita Park is vice president. Albert H. Randall, secretary; Charles F. Merkel, treasurer, and William J. Logue, business manager, are all re-installed in their respective offices which they have held for many years, as was John E. Schath, sentinel.

Karah P. Farley, retiring chairman and George Evans, retiring vice president, were presented with tokens of appreciation for their excellent service in office for the past two years.

Trinity Church Re-Elects Vestry

MENLO PARK, Jan. 11—Trinity Episcopal Church will be headed by the same vestry again this year as all the members were re-elected. They are De Lancey Lwis, Augustus Taylor, Edward L. Eyre, W. Stanley Pearce, Joseph J. Dunlop, Thomas J. Packham and John Breeden.

Election of delegates to the House of Churchwomen and nomination of delegates and alternates to the diocesan convention was also held at the meeting Tuesday.

EPA Grange

Installation Slated Following Pot-Luck Dinner Tuesday Night

EAST PALO ALTO, Jan. 11—Officers-elect of the local Grange will be installed on Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the Ravenswood School.

A pot-luck supper at 6:30 o'clock will preceed the evening's ceremony, and a short business session of the Grange will be called in one of the school rooms at promptly 8 o'clock; the installation ceremony at 8:30 will be open to the public. Charles G. Spargur of Mountain View, district deputy, will be installing officer.

The next meeting of the East Palo Alto Juvenile Grange will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday in the auditorium of the Ravenswood School.

VOLUNTEER FIRE CHIEFS INSTALL 1940 OFFICERS

SAN CARLOS, Jan. 11 — San Carlos Volunteer Fire Department Tuesday night installed 1940 officers, Edward Clier succeeding George Kirchner as president. Ernest Nelson is vice president, Edward Wheeler Jr., sergeant at arms; Edward A. Burton, Henry F. Wrigley and Chief Edward Wheeler, directors. About 50 firemen, city and county officials attended the banquet prepared by Capt. M. J. Cahill.

JUNIOR MATRONS DISCUSS 'SPRING DANCE' PLANS
